

OpenSchoolsCA Calls on Gov Newsom to Reopen Every School Now for All Grades
Executive Action is Required to Get All California Kids Back to School in March

OAKLAND, CA – March 10, 2021 – Last night, Governor Newsom delivered his State of the State address. OpenSchoolsCA issued the following statement:

“We applaud Governor Newsom for reducing the COVID-19 daily case rate and rolling out one of the most effective vaccine distribution programs in the world. Yet, there is absolutely no reason not to reopen every school, for five full days, now for all grades. The legislative compromise did not go far enough and many schools will continue online learning through the rest of the school year.

The governor has said he lets science guide his decisions. Science says it's safe to reopen. We need Governor Newsom to act today by executive action, just as many of his peers have done, and send millions of California children back to school immediately.”
